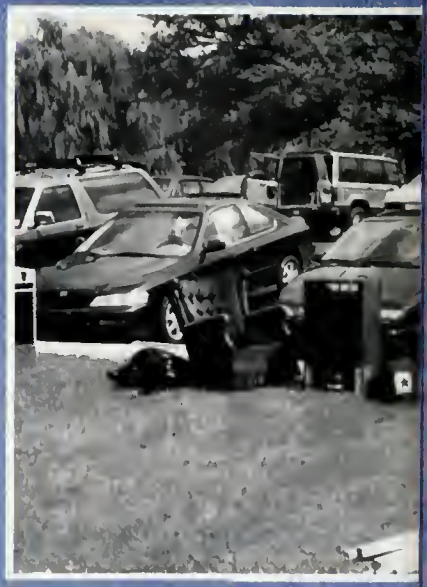
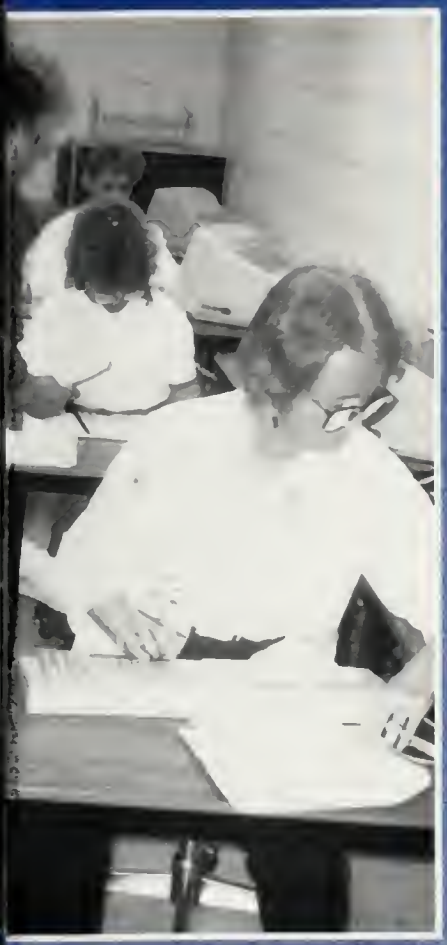
A New Beginning

Martha Gilliam, with the help of her father, moves in for a new exciting year.

Citizen telephone company arranges phone connections for students. Will Dad be happy when the phone bill comes?

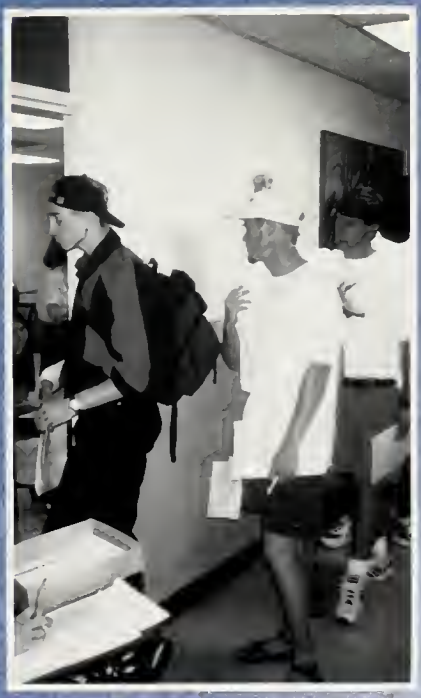


You don't realize how much ?!? you have until you try to fit it into your small, compact ronm.



Dr. Coleman-West registers Kate for classes.

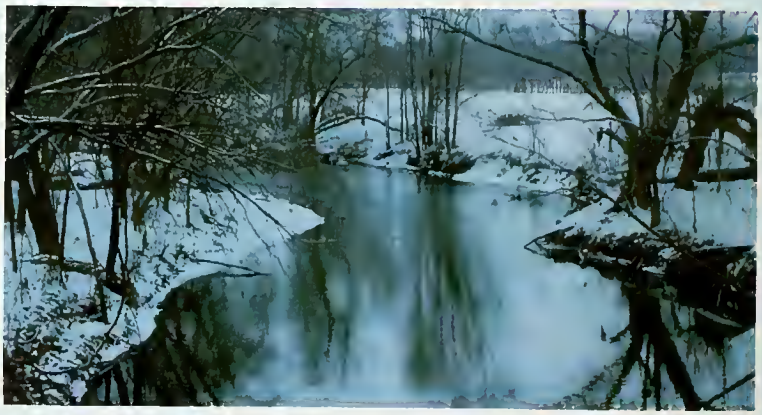
Sophomore Jay Rudersdorf smiles as she moves in for a second time.



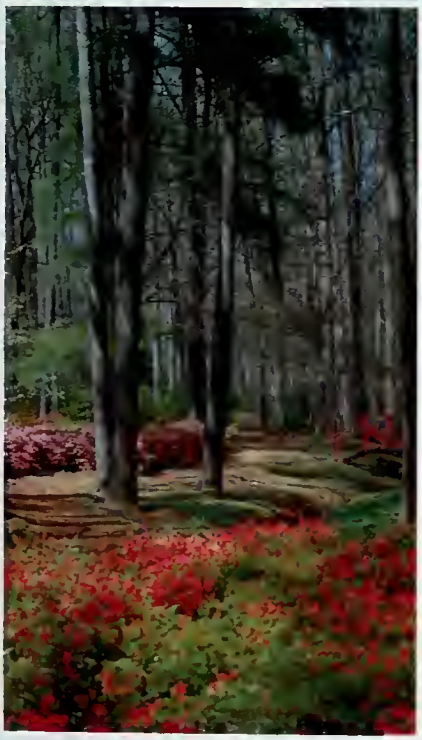
Chris and Bubba stand in line waiting to register for their class schedules.

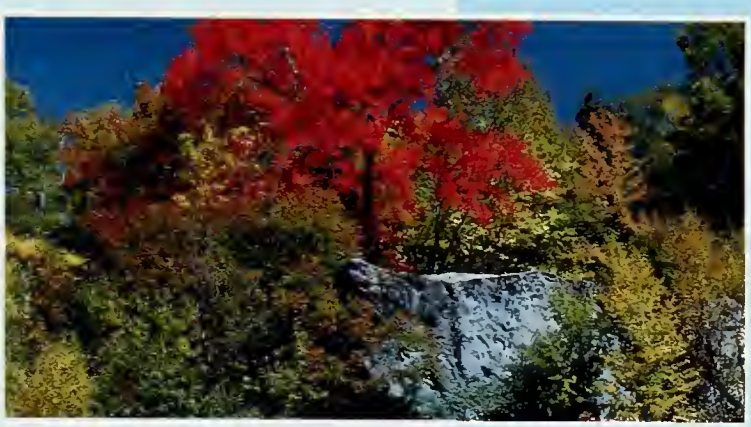
Mike Jenkins registers for his room in Beam lobby.

Brevard College is located near the beautiful Blue Ridge Mountains. Its location is one of the driving forces behind some students' decisions to attend BC. Kayaking, rock climbing and hiking are activities that students may enjoy both in and out of the classroom. However, whether one is active in these outdoor sports or just likes to sit back and enjoy the beauty of it all, the Blue Ridge Mountains project a timeless beauty we have come to know and love.



A NEW VIEW



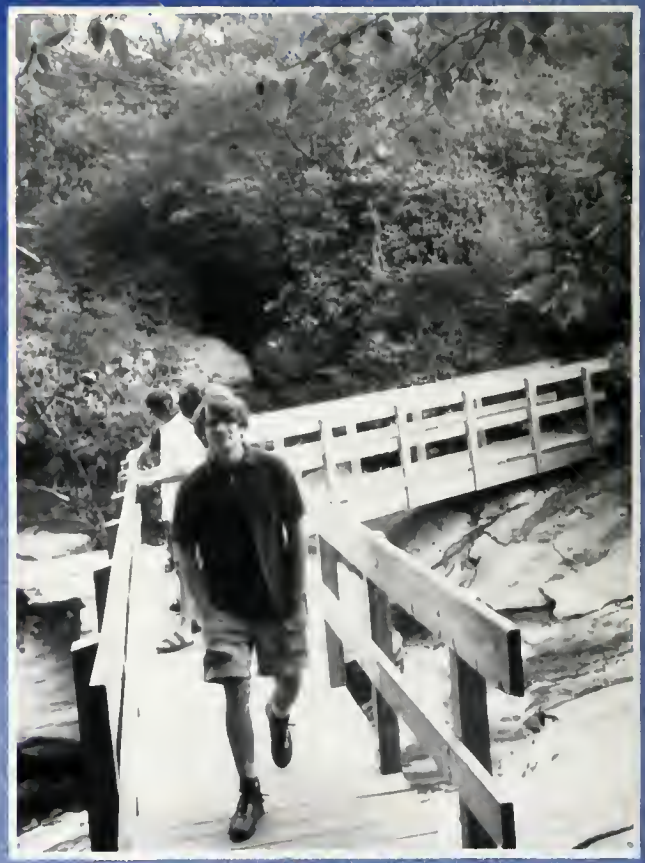


Of Blue

The Horseback class at Camp Illahee practice their skills.

Jesse Gore concentrates on climbing the "B52" rock.

Julie, Summer, and Rya sing their hearts out during karoake night at Wedge and Keg.



Geoff Hunt takes a hike at Graveyard Fields.

Out & About

When he has time away from his studies, Carlos Green clowns around on his family farm in Highlands.

Candy Crosby, Beth Fisher, and Crystal Rollison enjoy having a picnic in Pisgah National Forest.

Members of the BC Men's Basketball Team enjoy a cool dip at Sliding Rock.

Ken MacGregor enjoys camping in Pisgah National Forest.

President Bertrand and daughter, Maggie, show their spirit by attending and helping at Derby Day.

Thomas tries to fix up Ben for the big excitement of Derby Day.

Chrystal enjoys crawling over the man-made-and-held bridge.

Stephanie and T.T. race to beat everyone else in the three-legged race.

Derby Day

Derby Day is THE day where the students in the dorms compete against each other in athletic and crazy events such as: the izy-dizzy, musical water buckets, tug-of-war, can crushing, the three-legged race, and the shaving cream sculpting contest, to name only a few. The games are very exciting and challenging for students, faculty, and staff members who enjoy competing as well as socializing.

Winners of the day's events, the Commuter Students, show their spirit in their tye-dyed t-shirts.

Chris Theokas, Brian Burris, and Chris Ford crush for BC recycles.

Ready, set, GO! Eric and Mike enjoy the chance to slurp down jell-o in front of everyone.

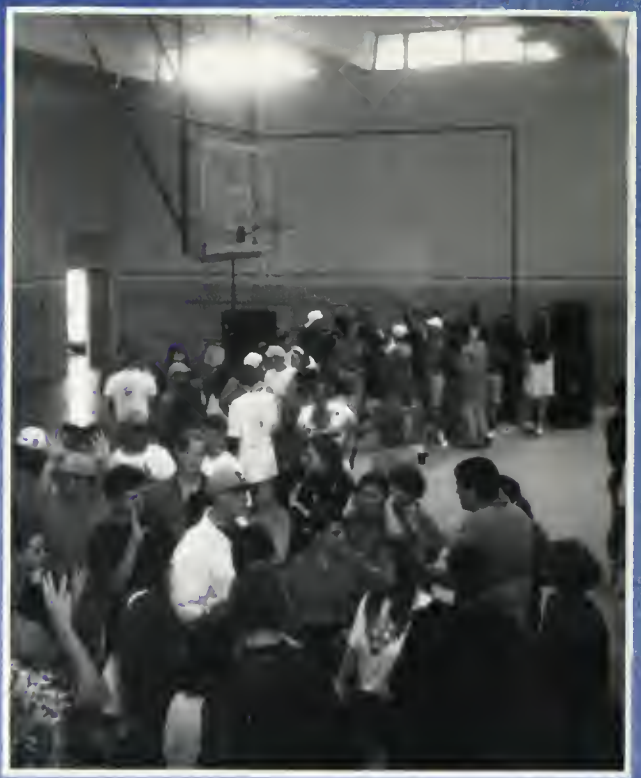
While no one is looking Chris Ford sneaks a chance to cool off!!

Having Fun

Micheal, The RD in Green, throws the frisbee during his free time.

Tony, Rudney, and Teon get crazy and wild while playing Sega.

Dale Taylor takes a stomach-turning ride on the gyro.

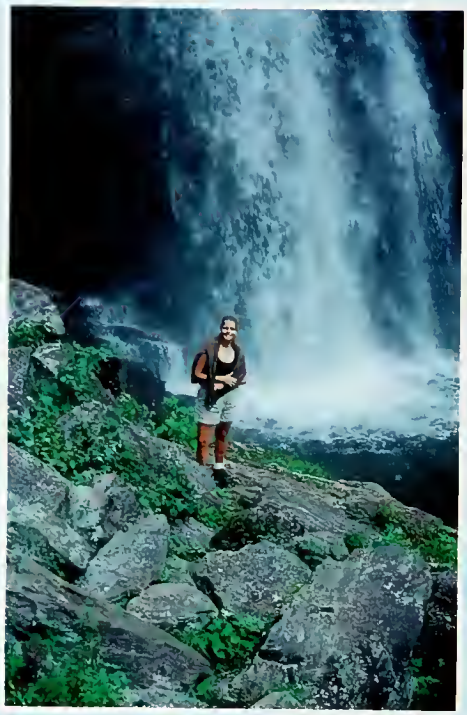


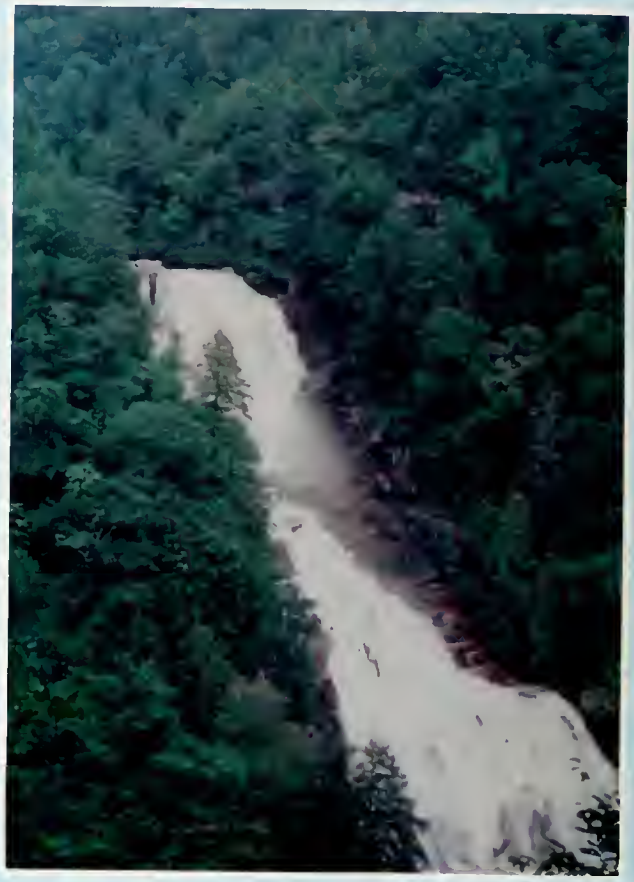
At orientation, new students are required to get to know each other.

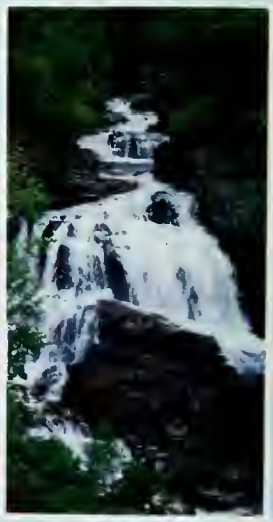
and Fred compete to win the bungee run.

New students test their trust in order to make a sitting chain.

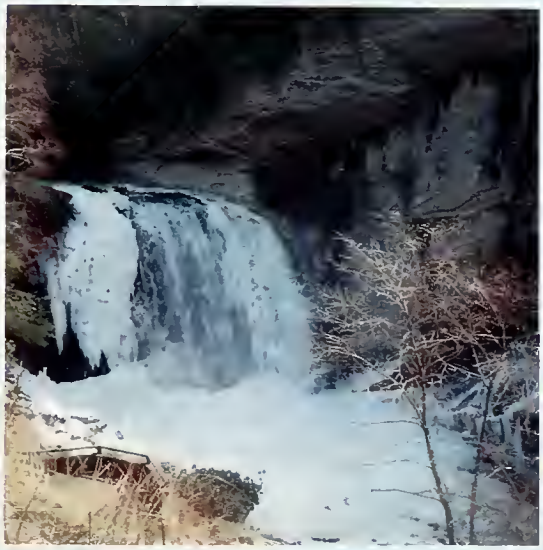
Beth gets a lift from Mike, her shaving cream friend.







Land Where The Water Falls



Coming Home

Each year, classes from all the way back to 1939 enjoy the luncheon.

Tony and Jennie, class of '86, return to join all the Homecoming festivities.

Twana gets into the grove during the dance.

More dancing, dancing, dancing!!

On "Pajama Day" Amy enjoys showing her spirit while talking to Erica.

This is what the bonfire would have looked like!

Nick, Bobby, Ross, Rodney, Dave, Bodie, and Jess enjoy the Crown of the Carolinas together.

During Homecoming, students enjoy "hangin' out" while awaiting the court.

Homecoming

1994 Homecoming Court: Stephanie Thompson, Lyle Alexis, Megan Remick, Lisa Roberts, Mike Crochetiere, Sheila Best, Summer Kershaw, Lezonne Miller, Piper Andre, Christina Olsen, Chris Sailors, Tonya Costa, Rodney Melton, Trysh and Bryant Womack, Tyann Blissett, and Tom Stahlschmidt.

King and Queen: Rodney Melton and Tonya Costa

Prince and Princess: Lyle Alexis and Summer Kershaw

The week before Homecoming started off with students dressing up in different outfits to show their spirit. Hick Day, Preppie Day, Pajama Day, Woodstock Day, and Spirit Day were the themes of the week. The dance on Friday night was the perfect end to a exciting week as well as a perfect beginning to the weekend. Not only did the students enjoy the week, but faculty as well joined in on the fun, especially on Homecoming Day. On Saturday, which was Homecoming Day, the women's soccer team triumphed over Essex Community College, and the men's soccer team also defeated its opponent, Reinhardt College. The soccer teams were not the only ones who were playing that day; the baseball team thrashed Furman College which was a pefect end to the Homecoming games. The baseball team also enjoyed a special dedication after the game of the "Gil Coan Field." Thus, Homecoming was an enjoyable time for everyone.

Tyann Blissett and Tom Stahlschmidt take time out from soccer to join the 1994 Homecoming Court.

Willie Evans, Preston Woodruff, Joe McCall (alumni), and Ernie Mills enjoy entertaining alumni, staff, and students during the Saturday night "coffee house" in the Barn.

Tammy, Nakia, and LaShawnta bust a move at the Homecoming dance.

At the Homecoming dance, Chris Theokas and Bobbie Jo Simmons do their own version of "Friday Night Live."

East Beam

Unlike last year, East Beam houses males and females. There are females on the first floor and males on the second and third. Beam is a dorm with a lot of activity, and there is always someone being a little too rowdy. Beam is a nice place to live and most importantly, there are no community restrooms.

"Candy, didn't your Mom warn you about poking someone's eye out?" asked Christy.

Christy welcomes an interruption of studies with her trademark smile.

Terry shows off his reading ability in front of his gang.

Just another social gathering on 3rd floor.

Hey, what do you want? says Mac as he opens his door.

Yes, Tom does study.

"Maxium Security" — East Beam

Dan, Ken, John, and Chris enjoy a steak dinner that their RA made for them.

Marjorie has been defeated by Devon after a wrestling match.

Listening to his music and chilling out is what Oneal does to relax after a hard day of classes.

Chisako likes to read a good book in her spare time.

West Beam

94-95 school year is the first attempt to have co-ed honor scholars' housing. The women are on the first and third floor, while the men are living in the basement and on the second floor. To live in the co-ed honors dorm, one must maintain a 3.0 GPA and not have any violations.

n their spare time, Rick and Tom kick round the hacky sac.

It's laundry day for Twana.

The "Unforgettable" West Beam!

COMPLEX

The Complex houses the Men's Track and Cross Country Team. Living on the edge of the campus, these guys sometimes feel alienated, but as soon as they jump into their OWN KITCHEN and whip up a big plate of nachos they soon forget all their worries. As a team and housemates, these guys have learned to respect and understand each other both on the track and in their "house."

Jason, Ross, and Jimmy clown around before practice.

Their home away from home.

James enjoys relaxing from a run with a bowl of popcorn.

Walter and Jeremey try to hide from the camera.

Our compliments to the chef, Niles!

David finds takes time out of his busy schedule to study for an English test.

Hangin' with Tommy.

During their freetime, Jeremy, John, and Dave play Sega.

Green

John and Rodney kick back and think about doing their homework.

Dave practices his Interior Decorating skills.

Personality from Smitty's "Stop Bed-Wetting" sign to more variety of music than a radio station, Green is really full of it. Under the direction of new Resident Director Michael Louter, it is described as fun, loud, and boasts of the largest rooms. One of the residents, Raymond Smith says he enjoys living in the cinderblock dungeons because, "that's where all the cool people hang." Having combined good times and academics, Green has become one of the best dorms on campus.

The effervescent Green Dorm.

Looking for a date, Chan and Geoff break out their not-so-little — black book.

Always having time to pose, Tony does one more freeze-frame for the ladies.

Demonstrating another occupational hazard for photographers, Jason politely requests to eat in peace.

Jones

Jones Dormitory — the womens dorm.

Nicole and L.A. pose for the camera.

Jones dormitory, the only all women complex on campus underwent a change in leadership this year. New Resident Directors Linda Griffith and Heather Laughran are one of the many new additions to the Brevard campus. Famous for it's four o'clock A.M. fire drills and soccer in the halls, Jones has proved to be the best dorm on campus, from a woman's point of view.

Sureka leaves Jones prepared for class.

Nuki sits in her favorite resting spot.

After a long hard day, Thea and Mary go back to their rooms.

Decorating doors for Halloween, Becca, Heather, and Megan take a break for the camera.

TAYLOR

Rob Nelson. The Man.

Jeremy, Shawn, and Kevin have a jam session.

Joe and Hunter enthosiastically take notes from Beavis and Butthead.

Marlboro Man searches for his homework on his neat and tidy desk.

If the abundance of police lines was the only indication of how wild Taylor Dorm is, wouldn't it be enough? John Dodson and the RA's work well with the residents to create a relaxed, amiable atmosphere. Living in Taylor can be described as total immersion into the "studying" environment.

Rab and Roy enjoy calling several 900 numbers.

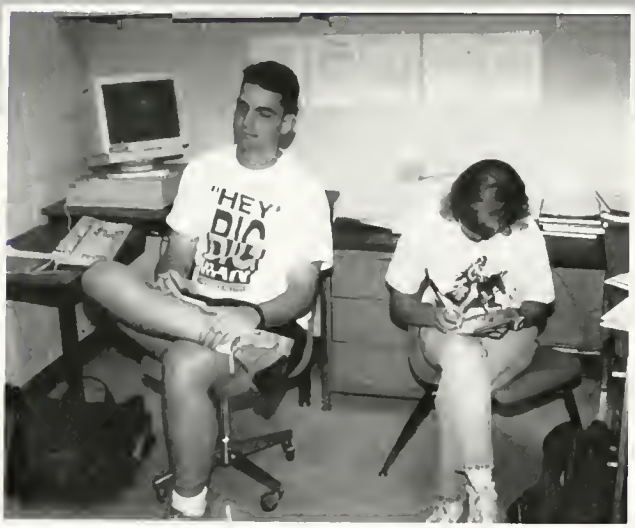
John Kilburn takes a rest in Taylor.

Taylor guys in their spare time.

Taylor Hall

In between classes, Daniel sacks out in the commuter lounge.

During orientation, many students, like Frank, have questions to ask Dean Martin.



Commuter President, Fred Woodward, and Vice-President, Erin Stacey, plan activities for the organization.

At the car wash fundraiser, Kathy Raymond and her husband enjoy rinsing as Fred washes.

Commuters

The Commuter Students began the year planning many social activities with Dean Steve Martin and Advisor, Patricia Chapman. They planned activities such as car washes, hiking trips, and other socials. Their first achievement came with the victory of Derby Day as many of them competed hard and showed their teamwork. For students who stay on the go and keep the roads hot, this group sure knows how to slow down and show their sense of unity and committment.

Lisa hides away in the commuter lounge to study for a test.

While listening to the radio, sisters Kathy and Maria decide that studying in the parking lot is more comfortable than in a hot classroom.

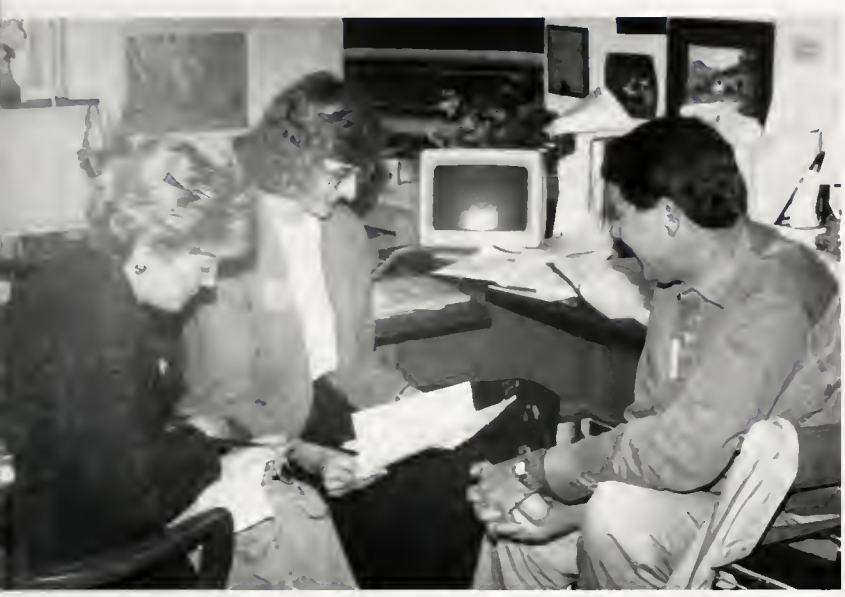
Parent's Weekend

Parent's Weekend was held October 28-30 — Halloween Weekend; how spooky! Parents, students, and faculty all had a chance to enjoy each other both in and out of class. On Friday, parents were invited to attend class. On Saturday morning, faculty, students, and parents all enjoyed social time over a continental breakfast; then parents were invited to meet for conferences with the faculty. On the more social side, many parents enjoyed picnics, "The Fantasticks," and quality time with their child.

Ben Vogle and family anxiously await for one of Peter Burger's famous lectures.

Sam Fuss and her dad discuss her schedule for next semester.

Picnics by the creek remind this family of home.



Don't Scott Pastushok's parents look eager to pay the bill?

Spanish Instructor Judy Pascale enjoys meeting with Michael Coan's parents.

Heather Lynch and her parents discuss marketing strategies with Business Instructor Michelle Choate.

Stephen Siferd shows his mother how "easy" the computer is to operate.

Daniela Argiro and her parents enjoy lunch together in the cafeteria.

Halloween

October 31st always brings stories of witches and warlocks, masquerade parties, and superstitious beliefs. For BC, Halloween especially means mischief! The Music department, BC Recycles, and the Social Board released academic tensions upon hapless students and the community at the Haunted House in Ross Hall. On the other hand, the more athletic students held a ritual bonfire and pep rally for the basketball teams. Whatever the plans, Halloween weekend always mean fun at BC.

If Samantha reads you a book, you will be spooked!

Crystal scare's the howl out of the Halloweener's.

At night Dana's true personality comes through.

The haunted house gang wished us a spooky Halloween.

Mike cooks an eye ball brew.

Where is Tatyana's leg?

One, two (John) Freddy's coming for you.

The Brevard College Theater Department opened Parents' Weekend with "The Fantasticks." The play was directed and designed by Bob White, and the musical director was Sam Cope.

"Gruss Gott" From Austria

Seven students and Scott Sheffield went over to Austria to spend four unforgettable months during the spring semester. They had a chance to visit archaeological sites, homes of famous composers, castles, and museums. A previous professor of philosophy at BC, Maggie Zednik, has lived in Altmunster, Austria for twenty years and houses BC students when they arrive. While under her wing, the students learn all about the German culture — the language, the art, the literature, and most important, the food.

After being welcomed by the Mayor, BC students enjoy their first Austrian dinner in a renovated Austrian farmhouse.

Beautiful buildings such as the City Hall of Vienna are part of the sightseeing tour.

Guarding the city for centuries, the Salzburg fortress stands tall and beautifully upon the hill.

In the early mornings and late evenings, one will find natives and tourists beside Lake Traun, in the village of Altmunster.

Dr. Sheffield enjoys taking the students to visit a historical place — the New Hofburg palace, where Hitler took over Vienna.

Architectural designs such as the Votivkirch cathedral is renown for its style.

BC students enjoy visiting Mozart's birthhouse.

The BC work team and others work at the Health Care Clinic in Bolivia.

Dan Milstein, Carlos Dominguez, and a volunteer from the community help plant tulips by the gym.

Brad Dodson and Toshi Akita repair a roof in Brownsville, Texas.

Tak Yamada and a Bolivian child smile for the camera.

Fran Lynch, Ernie Mills, Doug Stroud, Anderson Mack, and Hiromi Akiyama help out at John's Island, S.C. by cutting wood for the citizens there.

Project Inside-Out

"The John Island Crew" (l-r): Min Kim, Doug Stroud, Mark Casson, Helen DePuy, Chris Smith, John Aubrey, Tatyana Perry, Amy Holcombe, Kate Crawford, and Jason Stroud.

In Brownsville, Texas, Richard Bladom helps out an elderly couple by painting their house.

Hiromi Yamada assists in reroofing a home in Brownsville, Texas.

Project Inside-Out is the service learning component for graduation. Students volunteer 30 hours of work in the Brevard area, in their home towns, or on service trips during school breaks. This work enables students to examine and live out their responsibility to others and to the community at large. As students put together the hands on work experience with the experiences in the classroom, their horizons are broadened and they are more sensitive to understanding of the needs of others.

Wraping athlete's arms, legs, and feet are part of Elizabeth's work study as the athletic trainer's assistant.

Andre, Chris, and Jana mail out college brochures to prospective BC students.

Although it is the college switchboard, Rachael probably never thought that she would get paid for talking on the telephone.

Nancy makes copies of tests for Instructur Rhue Miller.

Workstudy

The workstudy program at BC strives to provide the students with an opportunity to experience a true work situation. BC employs about 80 students, and these students work in sixteen different departments on campus, performing clerical work, tutoring, preparing labs, and assisting faculty. Becky Sanchez, Director of Student and Volunteer Work Opportunity Office helps these future leaders to develop good work habits and attitudes.

After grading papers, recording grades, and running errands, Heather still keeps a smile on her face.

Alicia meets with Becky Sanchez to discuss employment opportunities both on and off campus.

Jennifer works diligently on her English research paper.

Miss Chapman's students prefer to have class outside on warm sunny days.

It is inevitable that all students must study. It is sad, but true, and sometimes students find it difficult to juggle studying along with socializing, especially on those nights when the moon is full and the air is crisp and inviting. However, students soon learn to make sacrifices and get their priorities straight. When this happens, you will see many students crowding the library at night, or you will find several outside in the shade trying to cram before a test. Whether its in a computer lab, library, outside, or in the dorms, students usually spend the majority of their time with their nose in a book.

Study Time

As Joe's psychology teacher said, it's important to take a short break every now and then from studying, but she didn't say to fall asleep, Joe!

Ppssttt break? Isn't it time for a You all look too serious . . .

Tab and Jess find that writing out problems on the board helps them to understand new concepts.

Studying seems to keep Chrystal and Candy in a good mood, yet it seems to put Doug to sleep!

Min Kim finds a nice shady spot to study.

A NEW VIEW

Of Administration And Staff

President Bertrand works on future plans at BC on his lap top computer.

Patricia Chapman and President Bertrand are ready for Convocation to begin.

Office Of The President

Going in new directions.

President Bertrand and Betty Neale always keep a busy schedule; however, the 1994-95 year has been extremely challenging due to the B.A. purposal. As BC takes a giant step in 4 yr direction, degrees in both Music and Art, President Bertrand leads the way.

Betty Neale, proofreads an important letter on her computer screen. She works diligently to help things in the President's office run smoothly.

Dr. Coleman-West takes a moment for some serious thoughts.

Charles Teague, Dean of Academic Planning, takes the opportunity during a Faculty meeting to discuss the Possible Bachelor's program with Tim Murray.

Academic Affairs

Staying on track

The Academic Affairs Office has a host of duties. Catalog development, Continuing Education, Registration, Academic Discipline, and scheduling are some of the duties these employees are responsible for just to keep the college on the right academic track.

Charles Teague is always interested in meetings his student's parents. Parent's Weekend is the perfect opportunity to do so.

Dr. Coleman-West, Sr. Vice President and Dean Academic Affairs, takes time from her busy schedule to assist a student one-on-one with some registration conflicts.

Dr. Coleman-West and Cam West take time after a poetry reading to have Ruth Moose autograph their books. Moose was the first performer in the 1994-95 "Poets and Writers at Brevard" series.

Members of the Office of Academic Affairs: Jacolyn Cambell, Dr. Clara Coleman-West, Adelaide Hart, (standing) Linda Epperson, Joyce Jackson, Ann Etters, Becky Sanchez, and Penny Creasman.

Penny Cresman stays busy keeping all the events at BC scheduled without conflicts.

Martha gives Ann a mailing list of prospective students. Efficiency is crucial in keeping the Admissions office organized.

Gala Rice and Student Ambassador President, Daniel Bowman, clown around before giving campus tours.

Admissions And Financial Aid

Ensuring academic success

The Admissions and Financial Aid staff counsel students, to make informed decisions about BC. It is imperative for students to make decisions based on finances as well as academics, so these staffs both assist students through college day programs, tours, interviews, and financial counseling.

Niles Hipps reviews a high school student's record before their interview.

Lisanne Masterson, Director of Financial Aid, wades through the red tape and paperwork in order to ensure proper financial assistance is given to all BC students.

Relieved to be home from a recruiting trip to Virginia, Caron Surrett races to unpack the car and get home.

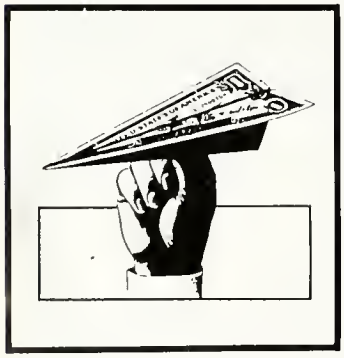
Argyle Gash cashes Ross's check. Isn't it great when the check FINALLY comes in the mail!

The BC Computer Staff: Alyse Hollingsworth, Teri Credille, Willy Evans, George Rolland and Michelle Choate.

Business And Finance

Keeping the balance



The employees in the Business and Finance Office work to see that everyone stays content by meeting their responsibilities which include keeping each student's account accurate, distributing staff salaries, and keeping the college's books balanced.

Mark Roberts assists Rodney with his bill.

Alyse Hollingsworth spends some of her free time with her daughter, Emily at Oh Susanna's.

Willy Evans teams up with Dave Wetmore to teach the faculty about the new INTERNET system.

Members of the Business and Finance Office: Kelly Wilkie, Doris Montgomery, Mark Roberts, Argyle Gash, and Joyce Rogers.

Joyce Rogers works to pay the end-of-the-month bills.

Linda Helms, Director of Development, plans the future of the college.

Don Scarborough, Sharon Brigham, and Sherry Maska show off their fundraising projects. They worked to engage community members to Adopt-A-Baseball-Player to help finance the baseball players' trip to the Jr. College World Series in Chicago.

Institutional Advancement

Working hard for the money

Members of the Institutional Advancement Office are responsible for funding efforts and alumni activities. From financial success to Homecoming activities, this staff stays busy keeping BC financially secure and prosperous.

Brad Kimzey takes a break from his Public information Duties

Hillary Fenner and Cristina Olson work hard raising money during the Fall Phon-A-Thon.

Don Scarborough discusses BC fundraising issues with two of the trustees during the Fall 1994 trustee meeting.

Andrea Piner makes phone calls in order to arrange some social activities on campus.

Steve Martin takes time to meet the mother of one of his Sociology students.

Campus Life

Keeping the campus safe and fun

The Campus Life staff works to keep the campus active and safe. From student dances to routine security checks, the hard working employees help keep the students happy and secure.

Campus Life staff: Charles Whitley, Steve Martin, Steve Woodson, and Andrea Piner.

Susan Chappell keeps smiling as she works to keep things in the Campus Life Office on track.

Onna Bouder and Heather Laughran take time to have dinner with the RD's.

Steve Woodson explains new security procedures to Steve Martin.

Alvin Dodson patrols campus to ensure the safety of the BC community.

Library And Bookstore

Where can you find most students between 7 and 9 p.m.? — in the library. The James Addison library is one of the most important places on campus, for it provides useful resources for growing minds. The library houses over 44,000 books, 200 CD's, 100 videotapes, over 250 periodicals, and many new CD-ROM's, such as Academic Index, News Bank, SIRS, and Discovering Authors; as many will confirm, this building on campus provides a priceless source of information and entertainment for students, faculty, and county residents.

While researching on Infotrack, Nathan receives help from Librarian Mike McCabe.

Millie Carmen spends a lot of her time sorting through all of the students' mail.

Burnley Ganus lends a helping hand to a student who is researching a topic.

The BC bookstore has it all! The hard-working staff runs a post office, a mini-department store, and a grocery store. At the beginning of the semester, the students swamp the bookstore to buy school supplies, textbooks, and that "gotta have" bag of gummy bears and sunflower seeds. Throughout the semester, students run to the bookstore anxiously to pick up those packages and letters from home. And in the winter, those students who did not pack for the "winter" flood into the bookstore to buy up all of the sweat suits, sweaters, and hats.

Mindy and Susan "check out" the new fashions at the bookstore.

After registration Kathy and Barbara help students find their textbooks.

Infirmary And Connection Center

The Infirmary and the Connection Center are places that aid students in various ways. To keep the students healthy, Dr. Folger, Lee Henry, and Susan Cahalan always keep stocked up with plenty of medicine and good advice. On the other hand, the Rev. Ernie Mills and Counselor Adeliade Hart in the Connection Center aid a student by keeping him in touch with himself, with his spirituality, and with other schools that he would like to attend after Brevard.

During flu season, Susan and the others in the Infirmary stay "booked."

"Laughter is the best medicine," says Lee.

Lee Henry watches Dr. Fogler write up a student's medical report.

Dana Dudzinski searches through college brochures in the Connection Center to help her decide what transfer school she wants.

Adelaide Hart works on a transfer guide for Admissions.

These catalogs and others are kept in stock in the Connection Center by Adelaide Hart.

Ernie Mills, the college chaplain, sits and plans his Bible study for College Life.

Snack Bar And Cafeteria

Need a place to just hang out and chow down? The Cafeteria offers a large selection of hot food, desserts, soups, sandwiches, and even wokery food. If you happen to be in the mood for potato skins, cheese sticks, or pizza, just swing on over to the Snack Bar in Coltrane Commons. Wherever one decides to eat, both places have good food that is filling (although it is not like mom's!).

Katie gets the hot bar ready for the lunch rush.

David Seiler works hard to keep the cafeteria well-stocked.

Snack bar staff (l to r): LaKeteta Bomar, Robin Rose, Kendrick Glover, Chris Drennen, and Erin Stacey.

"Bullet" creates a new work of art with the ice cream machine.

Steve Siferd waits in line for his tater skins.

Raymond Floyd works hard to keep the MS building swept and mopped.

Reid Plemmons and Jerry Marshall keep busy tidying up the grounds for the trustee meeting.

Housekeeping staff (l to r): Eddie Sae, Raymond Floyd, Hank Shipp, Leslie Childers, Becky Biron (secretary), Charlite Powell, and Ralph Ray.

To keep the lawns neat, Danny Corn and other maintenance workers have to put in a lot of hours.

Housekeeping And Maintenance

Sweeping up after Brevard College students keeps Mark busy.

Gary works hard to repair the light so the students are able to see at night.

No, your mom does not work here! It seems that way, because of the efficiency of our Housekeeping and Maintenance staff. Much dilligence and hard work goes into keeping our grounds and buildings in neat and tip-top shape. These unseen and unsung heroes add to the comfortable environment working with the motto "Clean and then vanish quickly without a trace."

Maintenance Staff: Reid Plemmons, Jerry Marshall, Crawford Lowe, Patricia Allison, Wayne Hinkle, Mark Walker, Danny Corn, Charles Stewart, Jack Hamlin, Gary Buchanan.

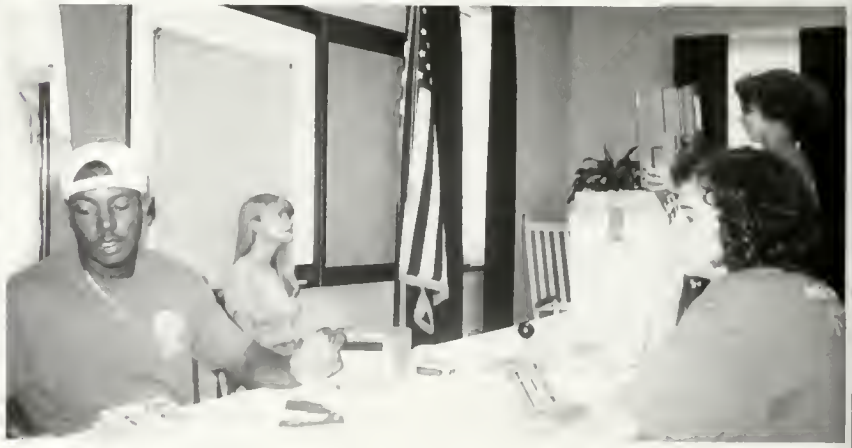
Taking pride in his work, Jesse always carries along a smile.

Resident Assistants

The Resident Assistants, also known as the RA's, are student leaders for each floor. RA's are the mediators between the students and the Office of Student Affairs. RA's are there to assist the RD's, keep the halls quiet, report problems or violations, and help their peers with problems, RA's commit a lot of time and energy into their job to make the dorms a great place to live.

The RA's (front row, l to r): Jon Ostendorff, Lara Sweet, Chris Ford, Tonya Costa, Nancy Genes, Chris Hall, Kevin Weiss. (2nd row): Thomas Weber, Jo Woodruff, Brian Bradner, Daniel Bowman, Kim Button. (3rd row): Jennifer Cook, Tawyna Mazyck, Ben Voegele, Elizabeth Lynn, Dustin Calhoun, Carl Gaines, Heather Waitman, Taylor Lutheren, and Megan Remick.

Mark decides to spend West Beam's activity money on a steak dinner . . . Yum.



Michael and Chris register new students into their new home.

While Kim takes ID pictures, Carl and Jon discuss activities for each dorm.

Resident Directors

The Resident Directors, or RD's, are the backbone of dorm life. Like RA's, they are there to help students with problems, keep the halls quiet, report problems or violations, and to hand out needed supplies. RD's also put in a lot of time into making the dorms a home away from home.

Charles Whitley, Asst. Dean of Student Life, checks his social calendar.

Heather, Linda, Terri, and Pablo are always on the go but still make time to plan activities for the students.

Michael takes a break to eat so that he can regain his strength and keep up with the students.

A NEW VIEW

Of Organizations

Pertelote

The BC yearbook staff under advisor Patricia Chapman and assistant advisor Tina McBride has worked very hard to maintain the Pertelote's high standards. Endless hours of hard work are put into the book each year, and this year was no exception. Scheduling pictures, capturing the right moments, writing accurate body copy, and drawing layouts to fit the pictures are just the half of it, as Nicole Gilbert, editor, and Candy Crosby, asst. editor, will affirm.

Yearbook members such as Martha, Jamie, Rya, and Kim spread out in the hallways to draw layouts for the yearbook.

Mrs. McBride proofs the copy on the computer.

Using their critical eyes, Raymond, Martha, and Chrystal select the perfect picture for the opening pages of the yearbook.

Candy and Nicole review old yearbooks for new ideas.

Raymond uses his math skills to design a very unique layout.

After a day of running around campus taking pictures, Miss Chapman is glad to stop for someone else's camera.

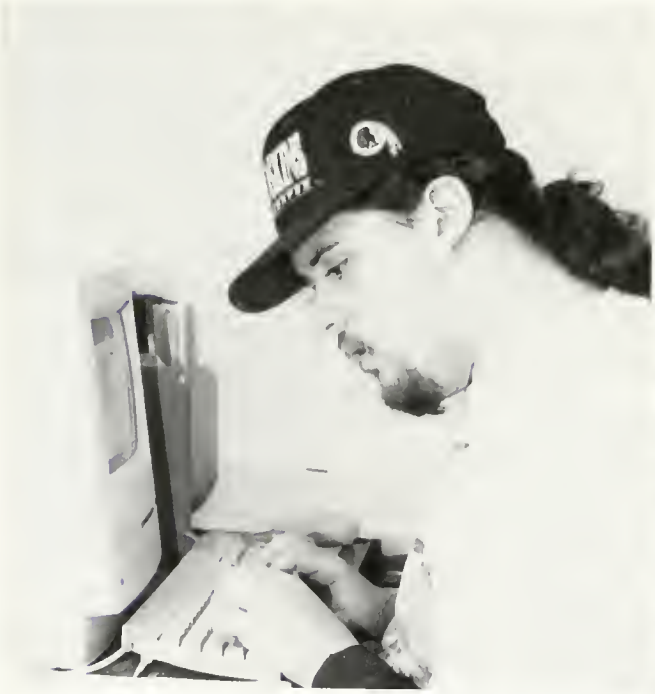
Clarion

The Clarion is a major source of information and communication at Brevard. The students look forward to the turn out of all the Clarion staff's hard work to bring us the latest in current events and news-breaking stories. The Brevard newspaper gives the students a chance to voice their opinions on debated concerns and issues. The staff not only keeps the students informed, but the faculty as well, with news that counts.

John Roberts, Assistant Editor; Kim Button, Editor; and Rahaum Skinner, Photo Editor, look over lists of stories and photos for the next issue of the Clairon.



John Roberts types away to try to complete an article in time for a deadline.

Ben Voegele goes over his layout to make sure it is perfect to be printed.

Brad Kimzey takes time from his busy schedual to pose for someone else's camera.

Chiaroscuro

BC's literary magazine, the Chiaroscuro, is a cherished tradition at Brevard College. Dr. Ken Chamlee, the advisor, encourages students and even faculty on campus to realize their creative potential and make their mark by submitting poetry, photography, drawings, and short stories. The publication, released in early Spring, is a wonderful outlet for students' ideas, thoughts, and inspirations.

Amy and Geoff enjoy reading student contributions from last year.

The inspiration of this magazine prepares for his Creative Writing course.

Chris and John review submissions and learn how to layout a literary magazine.

Moments of reflective inspiration yield, hopefully, poetic masterpieces.

Meredith and Rick show that creative writing can be both shocking and amusing.

A modern day Renaissance man, Doug helps keep the poetic muse alive.

Student Ambassadors

The Student Ambassadors work closely with the Admissions Office. Their purpose is to be tour guides on days when the campus has visiting and prospective students. Contributing many hours of hard work to the college, these students have no problem showing their positive attitude, representing BC, and introducing new students to college life.

Caron Surrett, Brooke Vivian, and Beth Fisher give a Saturday morning tour to a high school student and her family.

During a trustee meeting, Daniel Bowman, Student Ambassador President, discusses the benefits of attending BC for two years.

Brevard Scholars

Now Brevard College reaches out for higher academic students' interests. Each semester, from now on, faculty members present a research project or intellectual interest for those students with an academic concentration. Dr. Scott Sheffield launched the program in hopes of the faculty spending even more time with students in a relaxed, yet stimulating atmosphere. If two heads are better than one, then expect big things to come from this group.

Socialization among teachers and students with great refreshments adds much to the experience of being a Brevard Scholar.

At a Brevard Scholars meeting, the students learn about topics that interest them, like this one from Dr. Llewellyn.

LeZonn and President Bertrand engage in a deep, intellectual conversation after one of the meetings.

Dr. Sheffield, the creator of the program, entertains two scholars after a meeting.

PTK

PTK, the international honor fraternity of 2 yr. colleges, exists to recognize academic excellence. Membership in this organization is a privilege earned by qualifications, honor, and service. The Delta Pi Chapter of BC conducts activities to give programs on an Honors Topic each year. Apart from sponsoring programs and conducting fund raisers, members also have the opportunity to attend Leadership conferences and conventions as they did this year in Wilmington, NC

PTK officers: Josh Poindexter, Amy Cuccia, Robert Moore, and Kim Button.

Faculty members Bill Suder and Ginny Tillotson await to induct Tom Pettard, and Kevin Lee into PTK.

Linda Epperson receives the light from Burnley Ganus during the induction ceremony.

PTK members: (standing) Rhue Miller, sponsor, John Lambert, Layten Parker, Min Kim, Chris Hall, Linda Epperson, Terri Credille, Rehecca Stine, Amy Cuccia, Kim Button, and Robbie Warren, asst. (Sitting): Brian Burris, Robert Moore, Keri Sorken, Ai Okuda, Tonia Windam, Denise McKie, and Dana Dudsinski.

Student Marshalls

The top four students with the highest GPA are the Student Marshalls of Brevard College. They were selected before going into their sophomore year, during the summer of 1994. These four students are Aaron Barnes, Ross Gillespie, Dana Dudsinzki, and Amy Cuccia. Along with setting a good example for the BC community, they march with the faculty at Fall and Spring Convocation.

BC Student Marshalls: Amy Cuccia, Dana Dudsinski, Ross Gillespie, and Aaron Barnes.

Before Fall Convocation, the Student Marshalls mingle with other students.

You can still have fun and succeed — as Dana and Amy affirm.

Chris Ford, Student Government President: Jo Woodruff, Judicial Board Vice-President; and Dustin Calhoun, Social Board Vice-President.

Members of the Social Board entertain the Transylvania County Board of Commissioners.

Judicial Board: (standing) Pablo Sanchez, advisor; Geoff Hunt, John Milner, Stewart Johnson, Travis Marley, Brandon Printup, Fred Woodward. (sitting): Jennifer Lemmons, Jo Woodruff, Stephanie Nutting, and Min Kim.

Chrystal enjoys the socializing part of this organization.

Student Government Association

The Student Government Association represents views of the student body to the administration. This organization works to improve campus life for all students. The Student Government Association includes both the Social Board and the Judicial Board. The Social Board sponsors the Halloween dance, the Homecoming Dance, and the Spring formal and is responsible for all other college-sponsored student entertainment. The Judicial Board hears appeals from students who have been involved in disciplinary action.

Even Jo and Chris can relax and have fun.

Daniel and Fred prepare for a J-board meeting in a light-hearted manner.

Derek, Andrea, Candy, Bobbie Jo, James, Mike, Lyle, John, Chris, and Erin show off the Social Board way of celebrating with Christmas spirit.

As guest speaker for the Spanish Club, Dan reveals all the beautiful customs of his home — Curacao.

The exquisite Biltmore House in Asheville, NC.

The Spanish Club enjoyed a wonderful Christmas fiesta at Senora Pascale's house.

Spanish And French

The Spanish Club, sponsored by Judy Pascale, as well as the French Club which is sponsored by Joy Bulluck, enjoyed a successful year. Both clubs are designed to encourage the members to appreciate and participate in other cultures. Special presentations, guest speakers, films, and socials help them fulfill this goal. Field trips also enhance awareness and appreciation of the larger world around us. This year the French Club traveled to the Biltmore House in Asheville which incorporates features from the Chateaux of the Loire. The Spanish Club, as well enjoyed an outing of their own when they were invited to a fiesta at Senora Pascale's house.

Members of the Spanish Club enjoy a trip to a Mexican Restaurant.

BC Recycles

Recycling has become very popular these days. Dr. Bob Glesenor works hard with President Beth Fisher and Vice-President Heather Waitman to keep BC Recycles an important part of Brevard. This environmental staff has put recycling bends up campus wide to ask for student support in recycling.

Jon Roberts. Mary Lineberry, Heather Waitman, Beth Fisher. Raymond Smith, Chrystal Rollison, Jace Freeman, and Josh Hamilton.

Elizabeth and Robbie are hard at work collecting the paper to recycle.

Beth Fisher shows the easy way to paint the shed.

Putting her artistic talent to work, Heather Waitman decorates the BC Recycle box.

Seac

Seac, Student Environmental Action Coalition, was formed to further educate and encourage students to get involved in environmental issues which affect us all. The newly developed group on campus were fortunate to attend the State Conference at Duke University. Advisor Bob Glesener and President Beth Fisher state that as the years progress, groups such as this one will become more instrumental to the progress and success of the human race.

During a late night meeting, Jon and Mary address letters of support to local statewide organizations.

President Beth Fisher discusses local environmental issues.

College Life

College Life, sponsored by the Chaplain of the College, Ernie Mills, is an organization that seeks to explore and celebrate all facets of one's experience in college, while emphasizing the personal and the religious. This year the club found a new home in one of the duplexes, and there the group met each week to have fellowship, sing, worship, and just relax after a stressful day of college.

Thomas listens attentively as Mr. Mills explains one of the many parables in the Bible.

During Christmas, several members of College Life go caroling at local nursing homes.

Several students enjoy having the opportunity to discuss their trials and tribulations while at college.

Outdoor Club

The Outdoor Club, advised by Clyde Carter, was organized this year for those students with a common interest in the outdoors, or namely activities in the wilderness. The club met each week at the Climbing wall in the gym to plan their "outings" and were able to go on many climbing, rafting, backpacking, and canoeing trips in Pisgah Forest and the surrounding area.

Brad McCarley and Jon Lamert (Co-Presidents of the club) discuss upcoming rock-climbing trips with other members.

Jon takes advice from a guest lecturer about climbing and bungee jumping.

Mr. Carter supervises at a club meeting while members tackle the Climbing Wall.

Region X Tournament	Mar. 2-4

Mike thrusts into the air and explodes with a deadly dunk.

Jumping, walking, or even standing in mid-air is no problem for Oneal.

With Scotty on the attack, the Tornadoes look to increase their lead.

White men can't what? John helps Brevard grab an easy two points off the paint.

The Tornado defense whirls around the opposition, hopefully preventing any points to the enemy.

These women know the importance of stretching before a run.

(front row): Heleo Griodstaff, Lori Brunner, Marla Getford, Erika Morrow, Hillary Fenner, Christioa Olsen, Lynn Price, and Cori Rhoades.

Helen Grindstaff blazes for the finishline.

Coach Rinker presents John and the other team members with a plaque for winning the regionals.

These men have to psyche themselves out in order to prepare for an intense 5K run.

The Brevard women begin racing to victory.

Brevard's men focus on pulling ahead of the field.

At the VA Tech Invitational, Ericka and Cori race to the finish line in the 1000 meter race.

Nothing Gold Can Stay

Nature's first green is gold,
Her hardest hue to hold.
Her early leaf's a flower;
But only so an hour.
Then leaf subsides to leaf.
So Eden sank to grief,
So dawn goes down to day.
Nothing gold can stay.

It is when you can laugh with one another, cry with one another, be at your best or worst with another, that you share the gift of true friendship.

I would like to say goodbye to all my friends in which we shared a lot of great times and experiences. Brevard gave us a lot to move forward with. A very special thanks goes to my mom and dad for all the help they have given me and for supporting my every decision even if they felt it was the wrong one. Also, thanks to Bobby and Dawn, who in very odd ways kept me from giving up when things were down. I love you all! I leave with one last saying:

The Lord watches over all who love him,
but all the wicked he will destroy. Psalms: 145
